Description

Rustic plot of land with 2,480 m², featuring two wells and a water tank, located near the Pegões Aqueduct, in the vicinity of Tomar.

The land borders a natural stream and benefits from access via a service road alongside a tarmac road, providing convenient and practical access.

With ample water resources, this property is well suited for agricultural use, such as a vegetable garden or orchard, as well as for the creation of a private leisure area in a peaceful rural environment.

The property is located close to Tomar, a historic town well known for its cultural heritage, including the Convento de Cristo (UNESCO World Heritage Site), and offers a full range of services, commerce, restaurants, and leisure facilities, ensuring an excellent balance between rural surroundings and proximity to urban amenities.
